

Appearances and Attitudes (II)

Words to Define

1. circumspect
2. demure
3. dispassionate
4. dolorous
5. edacious
6. effete
7. feisty
8. flaccid
9. flippant
10. florid
11. glabrous
12. imperious
13. ingenious
14. intractable
15. intransigent

I. Which Word Comes to Mind? (circle one)

1. A married man takes his secretary to a dark restaurant

florid	circumspect	intransigent
--------	-------------	--------------

2. My father is the absolute boss in our house

dispassionate	glabrous	imperious
---------------	----------	-----------

3. An argument is in progress; neither side wants to give in

intractable	flaccid	edacious
-------------	---------	----------

4. The night club comedian upset his conservative audience

flippant	dolorous	effete
----------	----------	--------

5. A blush stole over the teenager's cheek

feisty	ingenious	demure
--------	-----------	--------

II. True or False (circle one)

1. Intransigent people are definitely intractable.
2. A glabrous person is usually vain about his attractive hair.
3. The winner's headquarters was filled with dolorous sounds when the victory was announced.
4. Julius Caesar's imperious manner befitted his position as a dictator.
5. Clark Kent's effete appearance was a way of disguising his true identity as Superman.

True or False

True or False

True or False

True or False

True or False

III. Matching

1. circumspect
2. demure
3. dispassionate
4. dolorous
5. edacious
6. effete
7. feisty
8. flaccid
9. flippant
10. florid
11. glabrous
12. imperious
13. ingenious
14. intractable
15. intransigent

- a. modest
- b. arrogant
- c. worn out
- d. mournful
- e. quarrelsome
- f. cautious
- g. clever
- h. disrespectful
- i. stubborn
- j. rosy
- k. consuming
- l. uncompromising
- m. bald
- n. flabby
- o. impartial