

Of Loves and Fears and Hates

Words to Define
1.	acrophobia
2.	bibliophile
3.	claustrophobia
4.	Francophile
5.	hydrophobia
6.	misanthropy
7.	misogyny
8.	paranoid
9.	philately
10.	Philistine
11.	philogyny
12.	philology
13.	Russophobia
14.	triskaidekaphobia
15.	xenophobia

I. Which Word Comes to Mind? (circle one)
1.	Bats and beavers are prone to this claustrophobia	hydrophobia
2.	No member of the famous trapeze artists, The Flying Valencia's, ever had this Francophilism	misanthropy
3.	Jack the Ripper must have been one misogynist	philatelist
4.	Beware of Friday the 13th
	bibliophile	triskaidekaphobia
5.	The U.S. Citizen likes anything that is American and detests everything else xenophobe	Russophobe

II. True or False (circle one)
1.	A bibliophile is a file clerk in a library.	True or False
2.	A Francophile would feel quite at home in Philadelphia.	True or False
3.	You can assume that a hermit is a misanthrope .	True or False
4.	Some men dream of having a harem, but not the misogynist .	True or False
5.	A Philistine would be a frequent visitor to the museums.	True or False

III. Matching
1.	acrophobia
2.	bibliophile
3.	claustrophobia
4.	Francophile
5.	hydrophobia
6.	misanthropy
7.	misogyny
8.	paranoid
9.	philately
10.	Philistine
11.	philogyny
12.	philology
13.	Russophobia
14.	triskaidekaphobia
15.	xenophobia

a.	lover of Gallic customs
b.	love of women
c.	rabies
d.	materialist
e.	lover of books
f.	fear of the number 13
g.	distrust of everyone
h.	distrust of women
i.	study of languages of the world
j.	fear of high places
k.	fear of foreigners
l.	stamp-collecting
m.	dislike of the USSR
n.	one with delusions of grandeur
o.	fear of being shut in