

Appearances and Attitudes (IV)

Words to Define
1.	pedantic
2.	pertinacious
3.	pontifical
4.	pretentious
5.	prolix
6.	puerile
7.	quiescent
8.	recalcitrant
9.	restive
10.	ribald
11.	sardonic
12.	sedulous
13.	sleazy
14.	supercilious
15.	voluptuous

I. Which Word Comes to Mind? (circle one)
1.	A gangster's cruel smile	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
		puerile	sedulous
			sardonic
2.	Second-rate fabric which wears poorly	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
		quiescent	pertinacious
			sleazy
3.	Someone who uses a dozen words when one would do	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
		prolix	supercilious
			recalcitrant
4.	The natives were nervous before the battle	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
		pontifical	restive
			pretentious
5.	A night club comic's suggestive monologue	<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>
		pedantic	ribald
			voluptuous

II. True or False (circle one)
1.	Mules and oxen are frequently described as being pertinacious .	True or False
2.	Sleazy products deserve the high price they command.	True or False
3.	Gary Cooper, famed for using words sparingly, drew compliments for that prolix style.	True or False
4.	Although we strive to be young, no one wants to be described as puerile .	True or False
5.	Quiescent talent can often be brought to the surface through patient teaching techniques.	True or False

III. Matching
1.	pedantic	<input type="text"/>
2.	pertinacious	<input type="text"/>
3.	pontifical	<input type="text"/>
4.	pretentious	<input type="text"/>
5.	prolix	<input type="text"/>
6.	puerile	<input type="text"/>
7.	quiescent	<input type="text"/>
8.	recalcitrant	<input type="text"/>
9.	restive	<input type="text"/>
10.	ribald	<input type="text"/>
11.	sardonic	<input type="text"/>
12.	sedulous	<input type="text"/>
13.	sleazy	<input type="text"/>
14.	supercilious	<input type="text"/>
15.	voluptuous	<input type="text"/>

a.	childish
b.	of poor quality
c.	haughty
d.	unruly
e.	sensuous
f.	ornate; overdone; high-sounding
g.	restless
h.	diligent
i.	stressing trivial points
j.	irreverent
k.	in repose
l.	sarcastic
m.	stubborn
n.	wordy
o.	showy