

Time on our Hands

Words to Define
1.	anachronism
2.	anon
3.	antebellum
4.	antediluvian
5.	atavism
6.	augury
7.	betimes
8.	biennial
9.	diurnal
10.	eon
11.	ephemeral
12.	epoch
13.	generation
14.	score
15.	tercentenary

I. Which Word Comes to Mind? (circle one)
1.	A woman wearing a style of dress which is completely out of date
		epoch	antediluvian
2.	Julius Caesar looking at his wristwatch
		tercentenary	ephemeral
3.	A young man following in his grandfather's footsteps
		anon	atavism
4.	You meet your old classmates every two years at a reunion.
		antebellum	betimes
5.	Your fortune is told by a gypsy
		augury	generation

II. True or False (circle one)
1.	Abraham Lincoln's "Fourscore and seven" was 87 years.	True or False
2.	Ephemeral is the opposite of "permanent."	True or False
3.	Someone who comes to you betimes takes his time about it.	True or False
4.	Cotton was the great crop of the antebellum South.	True or False
5.	The U.S. Will have its tercentenary celebration in 2076.	True or False

III. Matching
1.	anachronism
2.	anon
3.	antebellum
4.	antediluvian
5.	atavism
6.	augury
7.	betimes
8.	biennial
9.	diurnal
10.	eon
11.	ephemeral
12.	epoch
13.	generation
14.	score
15.	tercentenary

a.	short-lived
b.	before the flood
c.	twenty years
d.	reversion to an older type
e.	every two years
f.	something misplaced in time
g.	period of 300 years
h.	soon, in a short while
i.	thousands of years
j.	thirty years
k.	daily
l.	before it is too late
m.	noteworthy period
n.	before the war
o.	an omen